City of Edmonds Diversity Commission Information

Purpose

1. Determine new strategies for economic development within the city of Edmonds and design strategies to improve commercial viability, tourism development, and activity.
2. Identify new sources of revenue for consideration by the Edmonds City Council.

Background

On June 2, 2009, the Edmonds City Council created a Citizens Economic Development Commission consisting of up to 17 members. Each Council Member may appoint up to two members; the Mayor may appoint up to three members. Commission members must reside within city limits. The Commission will end on December 31, 2015.

Regular public meetings of the Commission will be held at a time or place as determined by the Commission Chair or a majority of the members of the Commission.

Powers and Duties – Citizens Economic Development Commission

The Commission will meet to discuss, prepare, and make recommendations to the Mayor and City Council, and as appropriate to the Planning Commission, Architectural Design Board, or other Boards or Commissions of the City. The Commission is to deliver an annual report to the City Council in written and oral form on or about the first meeting in December of every year, and when appropriate, during other times as directed by the Mayor or Council.
