

STAKEHOLDER MEETING NOTES

Location: Frances Anderson Center

Project: Edmonds Civic Field Master Plan

Project #: P3282

May 26, 2016, 11:30 AM Floretum Garden Club

Attendees: Sally Wassall, Marilyn Lindberg, Barbara Chase, Tia Scarce

- It is currently very stark, ugly fences
- Would like softer landscape, berms, nice landscaping
- Meandering pathways
- Parking; should we consider?
- Urban type park with gardens, i.e. butterfly garden
- Trees: but not too tall
- Noise buffers toward the residential area
- Tree: possibly the Puget Sound Juniper?
- Educational and attractive
- Stormwater LID, i.e. raingardens

May 27, 2016, 8:30 AM Councilmember Tom Mesaros

- Inventory other parks, close amenities and complement these areas
- Focus on youth
- No track, but put in meandering pathway
- Gathering place
- Concessions: accommodate with limited menu
- Yakima: Franklin Park; Scottsdale, Arizona, Thompson Park; good example
- Picnic shelters
- Would like to see the BG Club stay onsite
- No fence
- No parking needed
- No amphitheater, we have that at City Park
- Traffic study on 7th?
