NEWS RELEASE #3

Date: January 23, 2015

Contact: Sergeant Mark Marsh

Edmonds Police Department

Phone: (425) 771-0284

In late November and December of 2014, two Edmonds Auto Dealerships were repeatedly burglarized and had vehicles stolen. The businesses were victims of a ring of juvenile criminals that went to school and lived in Seattle. Seattle, Shoreline and Bothell also had victims of this same ring of juveniles in their jurisdictions. On December 5, 2014, Bothell Police Department responded to a burglary at an auto dealership and ended up arresting 10 juveniles, 7 males and 3 females, all residents of Seattle.

As a result of those arrests and further investigation by Edmonds Police detectives, charges have now been filed in 4 of the Edmonds Auto Dealership burglary cases. Those charges have been sent to the Juvenile Division of the Snohomish County Prosecutors Office for formal filing of charges.

Since the suspects are all juveniles no names will be released. No further information.
