

Edmonds Transportation Benefit District

Official Notice of 2013 Annual Report

The City of Edmonds is publishing the results of its Transportation Benefit District (ETBD) operations for the calendar year 2013. The ETBD was formed in November 2008 following procedures outlined in Revised Code of Washington 36.73 and in accordance with Edmonds City Code Chapter 3.65. In February 2009 a $20 local license fee was established by its Board of Directors, the Edmonds City Council. The publishing of this report is in accordance with RCW 36.73.160(2).

During 2013 the ETBD received a total of $650,836 in revenue from local license fees on vehicles registered within the jurisdictional limits of the City of Edmonds. These collected funds were expended for street maintenance, preservation, and operation of the street transportation system within the City's boundaries. TBD-funded activities included localized pavement repairs, pothole repairs, signage management, maintenance of pavement markings (buttons, curb paint, etc.), crosswalk painting, and traffic signal maintenance and repair.
