HISTORIC PRESERVATION COMMISSION SEEKS NEW MEMBERS

(Edmonds – WA) The City of Edmonds is seeking interested citizens for the Historic Preservation Commission. Applicants must reside within the city of Edmonds, have a demonstrated interest or competence in historic preservation, and possess qualities of impartiality and broad judgment.

The commission identifies and actively encourages conservation of the city's historic resources by maintaining a register of historic places, reviewing proposed changes to register properties, and raising community awareness and appreciation of the city's history and historic resources. It serves as the city's primary resource in matters of history, historic planning, and preservation. The commission meets the second Thursday of each month at 5:30 p.m. at City Hall.

Interested individuals may pick up an application at the reception desk in the lobby of City Hall located at 121 5th Ave. N., call 425.771.0247 to receive an application by mail or email, or download one from our website at <http://www.edmondswa.gov/government/boards-and-commissions/boards-commissions-committees-openings.html>.

Applications will be reviewed by current commission members prior to recommendation to the Mayor.
