ARCHITECTURAL DESIGN BOARD SEEKS MEMBER

(Edmonds – WA) The City of Edmonds is currently accepting applications for the layman position on the Architectural Design Board.

This is a volunteer position and requires the appointed board member to attend up to two evening meetings a month, on the first and third Wednesday of each month at 7 pm in the Public Safety Complex. The ADB serves as an advisory board to the City Council on proposed multiple-family and commercial developments including site, landscape, and building design. The term is through the end of 2014, and the appointed board member must reside within city limits.

Applications can be obtained at Edmonds City Hall, 121 5th Avenue No., online at www.edmondswa.gov under government, boards and commissions, current openings, or by calling 425.771.0247. This position is open until filled.
