PUBLIC INVITED TO MAYOR EARLING'S 2019 STATE OF THE CITY ADDRESS 8:30AM, THURSDAY, MARCH 7TH, AT EDMONDS THEATER

Opening Remarks by Teresa Wippel, MyEdmondsNews, and Pastor Barry Crane, North Sound Church

(Edmonds, WA) - Mayor Dave Earling invites the public to join him in reflecting on both the accomplishments and challenges of 2018 and in looking ahead to the City's goals and plans for 2019 during his annual State of the City Address at 8:30 am on Thursday, March 7th, at the Edmonds Theater at 415 Main Street. Mayor Earling will discuss the successes and challenges of the past year, projects and goals for the New Year, and long-term strategies for 2019 and beyond. Opening remarks will be provided by Teresa Wippel of MyEdmondsNews and Pastor Barry Crane of North Sound Church.

"We have much to celebrate from 2018 and much to accomplish in 2019," says Mayor Earling. "It's important to pause and take stock of where we are as a community and where we would like to be at this time next year. Our annual State of the City Address offers a valuable opportunity for our community to come together and reflect upon the previous year and contemplate our plans for a successful 2019."

This event is free and open to the public and will be videotaped for later broadcast on the city's website and government channel. If you would like more information, please contact the Mayor's Office at 425.771.0247.
